The Police Commission Practically Decides to That Effect --- Boutine of Yesterday's Meet.

One of the largest classes of applicants for positions on the police force was ex-amined yesterday that has appeared to-fore the commissioners for a long time. Many of the applicants were splential opecimens of physical manhood. They represented all trades and callings, from farming to bartending. Those applicants who are selected will be notified.

Residents on Grandville avenue, between A and B streets, complained that loafers infest the street, and asked for police protection. Referred to the committee on men and discipline.

The following bills were allowed: Police pay roll, $4,701.96, fire pay roll, $6,127.84; H. Gezon, $21.75; Smith & Hicks, $5.30; S. P. Swartz, $1.80; U. S. Springer, $21.75; Michigan Fire Ladder company, $1.200; George H. Wilmot, $10.10; Leitett Iron works, $5.13; Peningular Electrical company, $14.20; Hutchinson & Haynes, $11.85; Dungan Brow, $2.76; M. Kinney, $21.80; A. E. Hawley; $17.30; H. E. Barkley, $19.855.

The committee on men and discipline reported on the suspension of Norton Erebe as follows:

Seebe un follows: Erebs as follows:

We have examined into the suspension of Norton Beebs, driver of No. 3 chemical and are satisfied that the upsetting of the chemical at the corner of Jefferson and West Fulton streets, while responding to an niarm of tox 721, was not the result of fast driving particularly, but it was the result of not using sufficient care in turning the corsing sufficient care in farming the cor-The damage in this case amounted to the kecaking of a lantern and some little minor parts. press upon his drivers the necessity of being careful in going around corners. It is expected that accidents will happen but they happen always upon a straight road not in turning a corner, und it is antirely within the command of the drivers to go around a corpor properly. The board has always alvocated nears haste und less speed, but it usens to be unable to impress upon the drivers the accessity of greater caution, and we think it time to adopt more and we think it time to adopt more severe measures to enforce greater care. We therefore recommend that Norton Beebe te required to make good the damage to the lantern caused by the overterning of his chemical, to the extent of $5.

The report was adopted.

Are Back on Taxes.

James W. Converse began suit in the circlt court yesterday against B. W. Barnard to foreclose a mortgage of $2,000. The mortgage was given in 1883 to secure four promissory notes bearing 8 per cent interest, payable semi-annually. Two notes were for $200 each one was for $300 and one was for $2000. The mortgage covers property on Mt. Vernen street. The property has been sold subject to the mortgage several times. The present owner is alleged to have failed to pay the school and county tax, and has made defaults in the payment of interest. E. M. Stickney, Martin P. Birdsall and John G. Jackson are made co-defendants. Mr. Jackson is the last purchaser and is the person to make default. Another suit involving more money was also begun yesterday by Mr. Canverse to foreclose a meetgage of $10,400 given by Mr. Barnard in 1885 on lots 14 and 15 of block 16 of Converse's addition to the city. This mortgage was for $300 and one was for $2,000. The addition to the city. This mortgage was given to secure the payment of a note of $5,000, one of $1,000, two of $500 and one of $400. E. M.
